“ Heaven has truly gained a special individual. What he wouldn't do for anyone...I can't think of anything. And stubborn to a fault...he wouldn't take no for an answer. That trait actually got us home one day. Around 15 years or so ago my husband and I had gone to visit for a couple of days. We didn't really have any cash in our pockets for the trip back home to Mississippi but we had left about $25 in the bank for snacks and gas money. (or so we thought) As we were getting ready to leave he wanted to give us a jar of pennies he had been saving. We tried and tried to refuse but he was soooo darn insistant. So we left with that jar of pennies in the back seat. We got up the road to Gadsden and decided to fill up with gas before getting on the interstate. How my heart sank when our debit card was declined. I didn't know what to do. We still had almost half a tank but it wouldn't be enough to get us home. So we got back on the road and thought who can we call to wire us some gas money...and not be embarrassed about doing so. Then I thought about the jar of pennies. We managed to find an open bank on a Saturday and was able to get some penny rolls. We parked under a shade tree and rolled those pennies. I can't remember exactly how much it turned out to be, maybe about $10, but that jar of pennies helped to got us home. He was truly one of a kind.

“ Henry was a hoot always a joke or story to tell. He could buy a wart from you for a penny. I will miss seeing him around town on his motorcycle or bike. He was loved by his family and the store's and restaurants he would go to around Center. He is in God's hands now with Cobb and Margie and his brother's before him. For the family left there life will have a hole for now but one day you all will see him again. Love you Henry... Jim and Tammy Hunter

“ Love to hear him teach and want a good he would do just getting up and take off preaching. remember me and him setting in the room with Cobb he started going thru the Bible telling what Cobb might be seeing before he went to be with the Lord . I ask him Henry how do you come up with all the points he come up with he told me by fasting and praying. Wish I was able to be with his family. praying for his family.
