“ I will never forget you-you were the link to my mom. How I loved hearing your story's about their love. You and my mom had a special bond..You never skipped a Christmas without a card..May you rest in peace..You will be in my heart forever.You will be sadly missed.

“ Aggie,
I'll always remember your wonderful laugh, which I got to hear a lot!!
I'll never forget singing Mad Magazine parody songs to you—you always wanted me to sing more, because the songs made you laugh!! I miss you, Cousin!!!!❤️❤️

“ To my dear Kidd family in Alabama, I loved Aunt Aggie, she was a wild spirited woman. I wish you all lived closer so I could have visited. Once you left New Jersey for Florida we were split up. I fondly remember the good old days of family Birthday parties with all of us kids playing and the days of hanging out at the Pennsville Bowling alley. Aunt Aggie never forgot me over the years and always she sent me a Christmas card with a kind note with well wishes. Brenda, Jamie and Roy, I'm sorry for the loss on your mom. She was a beautiful person. Love Cuz Sherri
