“ Uncle Bebob, and Aunt Nora has always been the most caring, loving and funny of the Freeman family ❤️ Aunt Nora always had a smile ,hug and word of wisdom for you, then she would make s joke and have you laughing, no matter what was going on. Momma always looked up to Aunt Nora , even though she was a couple inches shorter, with love and respect. I am 58 ,and never heard her say anything bad about anyone. Some of my favorite memories was going to there house. " Aunt Nora, I know you had a wonderful Homecoming in Heaven!" You will always be remebered

“Mama always wanted everyone to be happy and she loved all the family get-togethers, reunions, and Halloween parties she shared with all of you over the years. Whether you called her Nora, Mama, or Mema, you were always welcome at her table. She loved to cook and was so accommodating. If someone didn't like meat and someone else didn't like beans, then she cooked three pots of chili - one pot the right way with everything, one pot with beans but no meat and one pot with meat but no beans. There were almost always two bowls of everything on the table - one with onions and one without, one with mayonnaise and one without. If you didn't like bananas, then she would even make you a bowl of banana pudding without the bananas.

After Mama passed, we found a little book in which she had written down some notes for her funeral. She also wrote this message for us that I want to share with all of her family and friends: "Love to all of you. Think of me but don't grieve over me. Love, Mema."

I think of her now on the front porch of heaven, sitting in a rocking chair beside Daddy, holding his hand and with a smile on her face. I love you Mama. Tina

BEBOB AND MEMA WERE TWO OF THE FINEST PEOPLE THAT I HAVE EVER MET. MY LIFE HAS BEEN ENRICHED BY KNOWING THEM.. IT WAS MY PRIVILEGE TO BE THEIR PASTOR FOR A SHORT TIME BUT EVEN MORE SO TO BE THEIR FRIEND. I HAD THE HONOR OF HELPING IN BEBOB'S FUNERAL, AND WOULD HAVE HELPED WITH MEMA'S EXCEPT FOR HEALTH PROBLEMS THAT PREVENTED ME FROM BEING AT THE FUNERAL. I LOVE THIS FAMILY, AND FOREVER WILL CHERISH THE MEMORIES MADE AT THE HOMEPLACE. CHRISTMAS TIME AND HALOWEEN WILL ALWAYS HAVE SOMETHING MISSING. MAY GOD BLESS THE FAMILY DURING THIS DARK HOUR. REV. “ Dear Freeman Family —so sorry to learn of “me-maw’s” passing. She was such a sweet soul, the times we all spent together at church, and the little laughs and jokes we all shared. I know she has missed her “Be-Bob” as we have also. May God be with you during the days ahead and you remember those special memories. We Love you all.
