“ I could fill a book with all the memories I have of this beautiful lady both inside and out I was blessed to call my friend. I saw her do so much for others no matter what the need was. I still have the housecoat she made me when my son was born almost 40 years ago! Audrey was the perfect “farmers wife” , mother, grandmother and friend and as we called her the First Lady of Moshat. A true Christian with a servant’s heart. I know J.R. Is smiling ear to ear to welcome his “darlin” home!

We love you Gran

“ She was a special lady. She was one of a kind. She was one of several people in the church who accepted me as part of the Moshat church family. She will be missed so much.
