My condolences to her sisters. Years ago We enjoyed the auction, the restaurant and we were friends with she and Bill. I left years ago and one day I came back and dropped in to see her. She could remember me. I knew it had to be Alzheimer's. ! When Bill died she seemed lost!

I am sorry that I did not see her more. Somebody later told me that she was in Rehab and that she had alzheimer's.

What a waste of such a beautiful person and mind. I never saw her again .

Rlp Barbara, tell Bill I still love the auctions!!

You will be missed.
