“ Looking back at our relationship it would sound strange to tell someone but she felt more like a sister in law? She always made us feel at home when we would come visit. I enjoyed our trips to come see everyone and go fishing. She wanted us to know she wasn't taking Sister's place and that she respected her so much. I will always be thankful to her for taking care of their husband and their children, and my, always, brother in law. Will keep all of you who loved her so much in my continued prayers. Love you all
