“ I meet him a few years ago and was always nice and he spoke to me everytime he saw me. He was a very nice guy what time I knew him.

“ Basil will be missed. He is truly the kind of example young men can follow. He was a model citizen for his community, a talented worker who perfected his trade, a great friend to many, a walking encyclopedia on many topics, and Basil was the kind of church member every pastor prays all might be. i'm glad I had the privilege of knowing Basil Bolton.

“ He was one of the finest men that I have ever know . He taught me and any one else that had ever worked with a lot of valuable information about pipe fitting . He would always tell us that you had to be smarter than what you were working on. I will always remember that every time we started to do a project. He will be missed. Jeff Payne
