

Betty Ruth McDougal

April 8, 1936 - December 27, 2016

Betty Ruth McDougal, 80, passed December 27, in Birmingham, Al. She was the greatest wife, mother, Mama, aunt , sister and friend.

She was born April 8, 1936 to Ollie and Bertie Bullock. She grew up in the Knighton Crossroads area where she attended Roy Webb and graduated from Jacksonville High school in 1954.

She married Douglas McDougal in 1956 while he was attending Auburn University. As a civil engineer, they lived in many states. She made friends in towns and cities across the country. In 1964, moving to Texas, she met her best, life long friend Helen Terry. She was friends with everyone she met and mother to so many more.

She loved to bowl, fish, listen to gospel and bluegrass music, cheered for karaoke singers and was quite the gambler. She never missed a Braves game and was the number 1 fan for Auburn Football. WAR EAGLE! !

She was precede in death by her son Don McDougal, husband Douglas McDougal, brother Gwin Bullock, sisters Beatrice Smith and Frances "Bill" Camp.

Survived by her children Dan and Renee McDougal, Treva McDougal Artimisi and Mailman, Suzie McDougal Batten and J. O.

Grandchildren Justin and Jen McDougal, Tyler Watts, Anna and Sam Robinson, Ariel Terbrueggen, Maddie McDougal and Jake McDougal
Adopted children John and Janette Hubbard. Sisters Loretta Sauls , Shirley Bullock and Bobbie June Tyree.

She stayed on the sunny side of life and was always ready for a party. Please join her family and friends for a celebration of BR on January 7, 2017 from 4pm-10 pm at UCP 101 Olso Circle, Birmingham, AL 35211
