“ Mr. Bill Trammell

A smile that could light up a room, the beauty in his soul always present in his countenance. He and Mrs. Eva helped shape my childhood just by being there at Piney every Sunday morning. Never met him in the aisle that he didn't have a hug for me and a pat on the back. Recently, while visiting Piney, I went over to see him, it had been a lot of years. I asked him did he know me and he smiled that smile and said, seems like I do. When I reminded him who I was and said "Hey Sug", he returned the gesture and wrapped me up in a big ole hug. Mrs. Eva called him Sug one time at church when I was young and so, so did I. Mrs. Eva, you are dearly loved, may God give you much comfort, as well as all of the family in this time of sorrow. Rest in Peace Sug, I have no doubt that you are home.

“ Cherokee Pines won't feel quite the same without him walking through the door. He was more than a member — he was part of the heart of this place. I always looked forward to seeing him, talking with him, and sharing a laugh. He will be deeply missed.
