“ To my brothers I love you all I am sorry to hear of Bobbies passing, she was more than just a family friend she was my second mom, I spent so many nights at her home, she meant the world to me and everyone that knew her. There is not a part of my life that I can remember her and the family not being in. It was the best time of my life. To Carol my sister GOD Blessed me with. I love you more than you will ever know words can not express what you mean to me. Thank you all for sharing moma with me. Love Peace and grace through this time. Just know I am with you all.
