“ I can't believe it has been five years since you transitioned into your heavenly home. I miss your silly little laugh and your fishing stories. I miss that constant encouragement you extended to me my whole life. You used to tell me to, "Get that monkey off my back." I now tell myself this and remind myself to push through. Thank you for always believing in me, even when I didn't believe in myself. You helped me to see the importance in simple things in life. I miss you Dad and I could really use one of those trips that we drive until we are tired and eat ice cream at every single Dairy Queen we pass, just because we could. Til' then... Dee

“ I miss you Dad. You used to say, "When I'm gone, don't forget me." I think of you daily and miss you so much. So much gas happened since you left us. I miss having your constant ear to listen and give me advise. I can hear you telling me, "Get that monkey off your back," I miss your funny little ways and your laugh. I hold every single memory close to my heart. Give my girl a hug for me. I love forever Dad....Til' Then ❤️
