“ Tommy, Tina and family, I know words don't mean much right now, but if you could feel all the love that comes with them, then you would feel my heart. You are all in my thoughts, and I'm praying God gives you comfort and holds you in His loving arms.

“ Tommy, Tina and family I am thinking of you at this sad time. I remember the good times and what a wonderful friend Brenda was to me and how our families have always been like "one". We all love you and we are praying for you.
