“ I had the good fortune to know Carl, Allen, Hands, Big Red, My Man during his time in Indiana Pennsylvania. He was a caring , thoughtful man who would do anything for me or my family. We enjoyed discussing politics, the teamsters and life. I always enjoyed his insight and positive outlook on life. He was a good friend and he will be missed. I spoke to him a week or so before he passed and he told me “ that my Doctor told me that I would live forever”- I believed him. Rest In Peace my friend.

“ My heart is empty with the loss of someone who I admired and loved. Carl (Hands) was a faithful servant of our Lord and a very special man. For many years we had shared good times. He had the gift to uplift anyone and I was blessed to have him in my life. He was unlike any other and will be fondly remembered and missed. May God grant him eternal life. Love always, Gayle
As Carl always signed off; PEACE

“ Uncle Alan was the male version of Mame Dennis from the film, AUNTIE MAME! Her credo for life was you've got to "live live live", and so was Uncle Alan's. His energy was kinetic & always in perpetual motion. When he entered a room, the trumpeters blared & the curtain went up. From his colorful tales & adventures, his never ending Pullet appetite, & his unceasing love for his Family & Faith....that genie wasn't going back into that bottle! Our conversations were epic from jazz, sumptuous Squirrel Hill meals in the 'burgh, Grammy's unforgettable comfort food, to rehashing Pullet hijinks...he had the gift to narrate a story where it came to life! So move over Saint Peter at the Pearlie's, Uncle Alan will announce himself, please & thank you!

*With heartfelt condolences & boundless love,
One of your many "favorite" nephews ;-)

“ I don't think Uncle Alan ever missed a family reunion (or free food!). He loved his family and the entire Pallet clan fiercely. Most of all, he loved our Lord and there is no doubt that he has eternal life and there was one heck of a family reunion on Feb 7th. We will all miss you and the hole that your passing left, will never be filled.
Love you,

“ There are too many memories to write here. I can't remember him ever missing a family reunion. He kept in touch with every individual Pullet family and knew everyone's name. He loved his family and siblings fiercely. Above all, he loved our Lord. I have no doubt that he wanted Eternal life and i know he achieved his goal. Our family has a large whole now. His larger than life presence will never be filled. We love you and look forward to joining you in Heaven when we are called. Now, rest well, knowing you left a wonderful legacy. PS When I get there, tell me where Hoffa is!! LOL!

“ Cannot find the words to say what his loss means to me. He was the closest thing to a brother that I had. And as far as memories go there isn't enough time Or space to say how many we have had over the years. He may be gone but he will be in my heart forever.
