“ Jammie, please know how sorry Lee and I are to hear about Charles's passing . I just found out today ... Charles came in when we were in a mess building our house and literally performed miracles with his expert carpentry skills and vision. He would always smile at Lee when I was telling him my ideas. I just want you to know how much Lee and I thought of him and how much we appreciated everything he did to help us . We will be praying for you and precious family. If there is anything you ever need please reach out to us . 🙏🙏🙏 Lee and Laura Pitts

“ Charles was not only a good contractor. I considered him as a good friend. I could call him about a small repair that I needed. He would take care of it, and then wouldn't let me pay him. I sent him a check once and he gave it back to me later. He did this for others besides me too. I always enjoyed eating lunch at the round table when he was there. It was a learning session for me. I along with many other Cherokee County residents are going to miss him. None of us are guaranteed another day on this earth. For the years that I knew Charles, he made his days count. We will keep the family in our prayers for the days ahead. They've lost a husband, a son, a father, and a brother. We've lost a friend. Rest in peace, Charles.
