Mr. Moore was a native of Birmingham, but has called Cherokee County home since 1990, He worked at the Auto Super Center with his sister & brother-in-law to supplement his income and because he loved talking to people and people loved him. Charlie was a member of Cedar Bluff First Baptist Church, and was very handy and could fix or do just about anything with super glue and duct tape. He loved fiercely; he loved to give hugs and always said he loved you.

He died at his sister & brother-in-law's house under hospice care after a long battle with colon cancer. He went to sleep with no pain or struggles and awoke with his savior Jesus Christ. His proudest accomplishments were his three children and two grandchildren.

The family request flowers or donations to the American Cancer Society.
