“ There are many people one meets along the path of life. Some incidental and some placed along the journey by God Himself. Mr. Poe was placed in my path by His hands. He will be so very missed- his smile, wry humor, zest for God, family and life. A fighter to the very end whose pearls of life will always be held close to the heart. My thankfulness to God for the blessing of knowing Rev. Poe, Gail and his precious family. God bless you and give you strength.
