I'm so sorry to hear about the passing of Christine. David and I had the privilege to be neighbors with Roy and Christine for 21years. They both were hard working people that were honest and true to their word. Christine was a person that pushed forward after Roy passed away and with a strive to continue each day is what gave her the strength to face each day. She was a strong, independent lady and she will be greatly missed not only by her family but those who knew her, either by working with her or by friendship. Praying for the family for the days ahead, that you all may have peace. May God continue to bless each of you during this time of sorrow. 🙏🙏
