

Christopher Vaughn

January 1, 1984 - April 1, 2022

Christopher Michael Vaughn, age 38 of Fort Payne, passed away Friday April 1st 2022.

Funeral services will be held 2PM, Thursday April 7th, at Perry Funeral Home Chapel with Bro. Mark Cosby, Richard Nix, and Dalton Cosby officiating.

Burial will follow in Walker's Chapel Cemetery. The family will receive friends from 12 until 2PM at the funeral home.

Pall bearers will include Dalton Cosby, Brian Gilliland, Brody Moses, Brian Griffith, Cody Biggs, Shane Butler, Michael Wynn, and Dwight Barrentine.

Honorary Pallbearers will include all Law Enforcement of Cherokee County.

He is survived by his wife, Ariel Henderson Vaughn; sons, Brayden Michael Vaughn and Bradley Thomas Vaughn; parents, Gary and Nancy Vaughn, Keith and Kelly Henderson; brother, Nick Vaughn, Nieces and Nephews, Kara Smith, Brynlee Pearson, Leah Hood, Kyla Barrentine, and Bryson Vaughn, Kade Smith, Raylan Pearson, Brantley Barrentine. Good Friends, Dalton Cosby, Brian Gilliland, Brody Moses, Brian Griffith, Cody Biggs, and many more.

Chris was a devoted husband, devoted father, and respected police officer.

Chris worked tirelessly with the Cedar Bluff Police Dept. to serve and protect the community. Chris had an adventurous spirit and loved life to the fullest. He loved anything to do with the outdoors. He enjoyed camping with his family, boating with his parents, wife and kids, playing the guitar with friends, and working on his family's homeplace. If you asked Chris, his greatest accomplishment in life was being a father to two amazing little boys.

Chris' impact on the community and everyone he came in contact with, will live on forever. Chris will be greatly missed by many.

The family requests no flowers, but donations be made to the Chris Vaughn Memorial Scholarship Fund at Alabama Teacher's Credit Union.
