“ *Dear Plug, Kevin & family,
i am so saddened to lose such a sweet friend & neighbor.
Cindy was a Wonderful and Happy Lady! She was always so cheerful and laughing.
I will miss her, as will all who knew her.
May god give you comfort & peace, in knowing she is only asleep in christ, resting untill the Ressurrection when Our Heavenly Father calls us Home to be with Him & our love ones for eternity! May god Bless each of you is my prayers.
Lovingly, Elaine*

“ We have great memories of Cindy as principal for our two sons and what a tough job to keep middle schoolers in line. Also, I, as a substitute teacher for six weeks under her, saw that she supported her teachers while motivating them to do their best. All around, a great educator.
