

Clara Garmon Hopkins

May 26, 2011

CLARA GARMON Hopkins Clara Garmon Hopkins, 85, died on Thursday, May 26, 2011. She had been a resident at The Village since 2005 and was recently a resident at the Cherokee Health and Rehab Center, Centre, AL. The service will be on Saturday, May 28, at Perry Funeral Home, Centre, AL; visitation will be at 12:00PM with the funeral immediately following at 1:00 PM. Burial will be at the Memory Gardens, Centre, AL. Dr. Mark Cosby, pastor of First Baptist Church, Cedar Bluff, will officiate. Mrs. Hopkins was born, raised and lived in Cherokee County; she graduated from Cherokee County High School. She was a member of First Baptist Church, Cedar Bluff, and enjoyed the members of her Golden Circle Sunday School Class. She was preceded in death by her husband, Julius H. Hopkins; parents, Walter and Lily Garmon; sisters, Ruth Mackey and Sue Burke; and brothers, Ben, Charles, Houston, Milford and Donald Garmon. She is survived by a son, Jerry W. Hopkins (Norma) of Alpharetta, GA; a daughter, Barbara H. Garner (Harold) of Cumming, GA; four grandchildren, Brad and Kate Hopkins, Brian and Eric (Melanie) Garner; and five great-grandchildren, Brett, Jordan, and Chandler (Brian), and Aidan and Avery (Eric and Melanie). She is also survived by four sister-in-laws, Callie Garmon, Lois Garmon, Nell Garmon and Katie Flemister; a brother-in-law, Johnny Burke; and a number of nieces and nephews. The family extends their appreciation to the staff of The Village and Cherokee Health and Rehab. Rather than flowers, a memorial may be made to the Golden Circle Sunday School Class, First Baptist Church, PO Box 488, Cedar Bluff, AL 35959, for their outreach ministries.

PDF Printable Version