“ I was privileged to teach and become friends with Dawn at Temple Christian School in Rockingham, NC. She was sweet, funny and a wonderful teacher to my two grandchildren, Isabelle and Jacob Honeycutt. They loved having her for a teacher and it was such a comfort to me. She made learning fun! I also had the privilege of teaching Lydia in the first grade. I called her my “Campbell Soup Girl” because Dawn always put those big hair bows in her short hair(Hee-hee) as Dawn would say. May the Lord be with the family giving strength and comfort in the days ahead. Looking forward to our great reunion Dawn!
