“ As I look back on my childhood, you are definitely thought about! I use to get so excited when I knew we were heading to grandma's house. I just couldn't wait to see my two sisters. God only knows how much I loved both of you. I can still see you two bebopping down the road smiling, giggling and hair bouncing back and forth. I knew I was about to have loads of fun and that I did. You treated me like I was your little sister and included me in everything. Most of all you had the most contagious laugh and always smiled. Debra, you will always be my sister and as tears come down my face, I can't help to smile! I'm going to see you one day and when I do, I am going to let you know how grateful that I am for your love. Love you always
P.S. If there is a beach in Heaven, tell mom to hold me a spot.

“ To my sweet sister Debra,
I will miss our visits and our Tuesday's phone conversations. We were always inseparable growing up and those memories will live on forever! Please tell everyone in Heaven hello from me. I can see you now playing Rook in Heaven with all of the Jackson family. I will be waiting for your signs from Heaven. I love you my sweet sister!
