“ I am glad to have known Doyle, and no one will ever be able to replace him. I like to believe that when we lose someone close to us they still live through us and give us strength. The time we have spent with those we've lost makes them part of us. I realize that we have lost a special person.

“ Papa, Words can never express my love for you, I miss you dearly. I sit back and try not to be sad that you have left us, but it hurts so much to know I can't call you and tell you about how school is going or how big McKina is getting. I'm sorry I put off going to Alabama for so long, I thought I was just so busy, but I should have made time. I just keep remembering getting donuts and orange juice for everyone on the weekends, fishing, and being your tag-a-long everywhere you went. I can hear you saying, "boo wanna go" or "can you make me a soda boo?" when you came home. Papa we all miss you sooo much and I wish McKina got to know you better cause my dad will never be half the Grandpa you are. I love you Papa!! Your in my heart always, Boo

“Dad by Judy Burnette Dad...so many images come to mind whenever I speak your name; It seems without you in my life things have never been the same. What happened to those lazy days when I was just a child; When my life was consumed in you in your love, and in your smile. What happened to all those times when I always looked to you; No matter what happened in my life you could make my gray skies blue. Dad, some days I hear your voice and turn to see your face; Yet in my turning...it seems the sound has been erased. Dad, who will I turn to for answers when life does not make sense; Who will be there to hold me close when the pieces just don't fit. Oh, Dad, if I could turn back time and once more hear your voice; I'd tell you that out of all the dads you would still be my choice. Please always know I love you and no one can take your place; Years may come and go but your memory will never be erased. Today, Jesus, as You are listening in your home above; Would you go and find my dad and give him all my love.
