“ Emily will be missed by all who knew and loved her. She expressed love and concern to the many students she taught. Emily loved her profession. The students and fellow teachers adored Emily. She was a wonderful mother, grandmother, wife, sister and friend. To know her was to call her friend. Emily was fun and had an infectious smile and laugh. My thoughts go out to the family. May precious memories of Emily sustain you.

“ I am brokenhearted to lose this beautiful friend, The lights seem to have dimmed since she left here. God truly has a special angel among His hosts. And....though our world will never be the same without our dear Emily,I will just bet Heaven will never be the same either. I would just love to know what has happened since she arrived! I know Emily is involved whatever it may be. I also know she is tugging at God's hand (and His heart) asking Him to comfort those of us who mourn her. And I also believe He has a little smile because He knows things are going be a little more lively since this special,sunny child of His has joined the ranks of His Heavenly Hosts.I love you Dear Emily and my heart goes out to Tom and your family.Nancy Beane.
