“ I worked with Felissa years ago at Matlock Industries, and we became the best of friends immediately, I moved from Cherokee County after my Mother's passing. I was so blessed to resume our friendship through Facebook! We chatted, rekindling our friendship, laughing and catching up! She lost her Dad and became overwhelmed, so sad, and the next thing I knew was fighting cancer, she was very optimistic, as was I, both of us believing she would win this battle. She fought a brave fight, but she is not a loser, God loved her, and stopped her pain, by taking her to her heavenly home, until we meet again, rest my heavenly friend. I love and miss you already, much Love, Cindy Mobbs

“ When I worked with 4h club several years ago, Felissa was so kind to me. She talked many many times about her children, Mickie, and her mom. They were her life. And Mickie's children too. I will never forget Felissa. She will be missed by so many
