“ Dear Joey & Family, I am so sorry to hear about George's passing. I have only known he had passed until recently. You are a very strong young Man that has experienced too much loss in your life. God has made you a strong Man Joey. I love you and I have many fond memories of all our Family enjoying life together. I am thankful for every second we had with Your Mother, I can still hear her laugh with that beautiful smile. May God Bless & keep you & yours always
