

Gladys Irene Amos

October 4, 1920 - March 3, 2024

GLADYS MINGUS AMOS

Gladys Mingus Amos, 103, of Centre, Alabama, formerly of Murphy, passed away Sunday, March 3, 2024 in an Alabama care facility. Gladys was a native of Cherokee County, where she had spent her entire life until moving to Alabama in 1998 after the death of her husband. She was a loving homemaker to her husband, children, and grandchildren. She was a devoted and active member of Hanging Dog Baptist Church, where she was involved with the Women's Missionary Union and volunteered with various committees within the church. Gladys loved to garden, cook, can, and provide for family and the community. She was the daughter of the late Sanford and Paralee Coleman Mingus and the wife of the late Lee Amos, who died January 27, 1995. She was also preceded in death by a son, Richard Amos; four sisters, Sally, Mamie, Fannie, and Celia; and a brother, John. Surviving are a daughter, Glenda Massey of Snellville, Georgia; and three grandchildren, Shane Massey and wife, Brandy of Loganville, Georgia, Ben Massey of Snellville, Georgia; and Angie Hawkins of Leicester, North Carolina; eight great-grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.

The family would like to thank the staff of Cherokee County Health and Rehabilitation for the exceptional care, kindness, and friendship and the special friends who gather to give her surprise birthday parties.

Funeral services will be held at 2:00 p.m. Saturday, March 9, 2024 in the chapel of Ivie Funeral Home, Murphy with the Rev. Eddis Dockery officiating. The interment will be Hanging Dog

Baptist Church Cemetery. Pallbearers will be Billy Mingus, Alfred Dockery, Shane and Tyler

Massey, Jerry Wilson, and Giles Scroggs. Jerry Palmer will serve as honorary pallbearer.

The family will receive friends from 6-8 Friday evening, March 8, and from 1-1:45 Saturday afternoon, March 9, at the Ivie Funeral Home, Murphy.

Ivie Funeral Home, Murphy in charge of all arrangements.

An online guest register is available at www.iviefuneralhome.com