“ Hard to describe my emotions. The selfish part of me wants you back because I already miss you so much, but the realistic side of me knows that there is no better place than where you are right now. We WILL meet again one day and what a wonderful day that will be.

“ Garyn, Jennifer and all the family: I know there is nothing to be said or done that can make this horrible time any better. Yet we want you all to know that each of you are in our prayers and thoughts. Greg was an amazing man, always able to bring smiles wherever he went. I will always admire his strength and ability to fight. He was such a blessing and help to me after my own diagnosis. If there is anything we can do to help y'all in anyway, we are here for you all! All of our love and prayers! Kurt, Ashley and Gracie Thrash

“ I worked with Greg at FMC and he was always fun to be around, laughing, smiling, Greg was a great friend to work with and on FB he would comment on my post back to me. Greg is absent in body but present with The Lord. Praying for his son and family for comfort, inner peace. Sometimes we don't understand things in life, but we still have to Trust God He had the greater plan. So for his son I would like to leave a bible verse Romans chapt8 verse 28 and Psalms chapt 5 verse 12. Praying for all. With Sympathy, Cheryl
