“ Greg Bell has been my best friend since I was 15 years old. He was a true, honest, loving, caringfunny man!!!! He could make you laugh at anything and loved to "pick" on people(in a fun laughing way.) He would do anything for anyone that he possible could. He loved his family (his kids he loved more than words could ever imagine) He always talked about his family, his brothers, sisters, mom, dad,neices, nephews, house keeper,friends and nurse. He cared about everyone that he came in contact with!!!! We would spend hours on the phone talking about everything that was going on with the family, kids, friends and anything else that came up in the conversation. WE had lots of crazy memories of when we were "young and dumb" and the "gang" was all together doing crazy things (the Krystal Runs) and some that I would not even begin to tell about....LOL. I could go on and on for hours about what a good person and friend that Greg was and how much he made us all laugh, was the best friend that anyone could ever have, and that he loved his family, but it would take me days to tell you everything that has gone on in our lives with GREG!!!! He is MY BEST FRIEND and I will miss the late night phone calls, the laughs, and the love that Greg gave to everyone. He is "one of a kind" there will never be another one like him and I will miss him for the rest of my life.....My friend is gone to be with GOD and will not hurt or be in pain anymore, BUT HE WILL NEVER BE FORGOTTEN!!!!!! I love you my friend.....save me a spot beside you in Heavenand meet me at the gate when my time comes!!!! You are the best friend that I have ever had and I love you and will miss you!!!!

“ I sat with Greg at the family reunion last year and he was laughing about the time he saw me get flogged by one of Aunt Emm's chickens. I still hate chickens!
