

Gregory Trei Stroud

June 1, 1991 - April 25, 2012

Mr. Gregory Trei Stroud, age 20, of Ballplay, passed away Wednesday, April 25th at his residence. Funeral services will be 3 pm Sunday, April 29th at the Perry Funeral Home Chapel with Rev. James Rainey, Rev. Dan Hale, and Rev. Jan Stanley officiating. Visitation will be from 12 noon until the time of funeral at 3 pm on Sunday. Burial will follow in Cherokee Memory Gardens. Pallbearers will be Tripp Curry, Fran Blanchard, Blake Arthur, Wesley Bannister, Dylan Cabe, Weston Gifford, T.J. Manley, and Kirk Johnson. Honorary pallbearers include his stepbrother, Justin Weaver; and lifelong friend, PFC Zachary Miller. Survivors include his mother, D'Ana Eubanks Stroud of Ballplay; father, Greg Stroud of Sand Rock; brother & bestfriend, Ty Stroud of Ballplay; grandparents, Marlin & Dale Eubanks of Ballplay and Gayle Brown of Orlando, FL; girlfriend of 5 years & soulmate, Hannah Marie Bannister; aunt, uncles, several special cousins, relatives and friends. Trei was a member of Centre First Baptist Church. He graduated from Cherokee County High School in 2009, where he played varsity football for 4 years. Trei was attending Gadsden State Community College, and was employed by NHC in Anniston, AL; where he was a Certified Nursing Assistant. Trei was a very special person, and his life was a reflection of that. He was incredibly loved and highly respected by all who knew him. As well as being a beautiful person inside and out, Trei was a wonderful son, one of the greatest brothers, a precious family member, an incredible boyfriend, and a truly amazing friend. He spent his life helping and caring for others through his profession. Trei knew exactly how to brighten a room with his presence, and he never hesitated to comfort those in need. Trei was truly an earth angel who was called home to receive his wings. He has certainly captured a significant grasp on all of our hearts, and he will never be forgotten.
