“ Dear Jerrice, I am very sorry to receive the word that your wife Helen has died. Several of us have gone through this mourning process the last two years. I don't like to use words like lost or deceased as they continue to live in our hearts and memories. I will be praying for you and your family. Take care. Camille

“ I am very sorry for the loss. Helen was a wonderful person and will be missed. I will try to make it there if I can, but I am in Kentucky on business and may not be able to make the trip. Even if I am not there in person, I will be thinking about all of you.
