

James A. "Lucky" Sexton

March 5, 1935 - March 5, 2010

Mr. James Sexton, age 75 of Dalton, Ga. passed away Friday, March 5th in Hamilton Medical Center. Funeral services will be 3:PM Sunday, March 7th at Perry Funeral Home Chapel with Rev. Donnie Trammell officiating; burial will follow in Cedar Bluff Cemetery; the family will receive friends from 6 until 8:PM Saturday, at the funeral home. Survivors include Brothers, Raymond Sexton of Dalton, Ga. and Albert Sexton of Chatsworth, Ga.; sister, Louise Bishop of Gadsden, Al.; several nieces & nephews. Mr. Sexton was a native of Cherokee County, the son of the late Albert & Ruby Bishop Sexton and was a member of 11th Ave. Baptist Church of Dalton.

PDF Printable Version

Tribute Wall

DS

“ The lasg gime I saw you sev months ago you invited me too your cuurch and I did the same to you but you were dedicated God had changed your life entirly instead of saying Goodbye you would reply PRAISE THE LORD so I have no doubt where you are at the gates of heaven being welcomed home, Your memory of stories of your lifetime still make me laugh no matter how bad life was you made people laugh when u reallu knew they needed it as a Man of God you became you always invited everyone to chuch I am so proud to have known you for 38 yrs. You will always be mine Melissa and Jason Sextons Unckle I will see u in heaven one day when God calls me home. Sorry Melissa Jason nor I couldn't be their for your funeral however you are sadly missed heavnes gain for this is the day the Lord has made. Deborah, Melissa, Jason Sexton

Deborah Sexton - March 07, 2010 at 12:00 AM