“ Mr. Scott- We had many great conversations over the last, what, 15 years or so, and for that I am extremely thankful.
I am also thankful for you and Deborah and Remington traveling to Rome to mow my mom's lawn which also allowed my mother to have great company as she was dealing with dementia and then the alzheimer's. Deborah was always the kindest and most caring individual.
Thank you Mr. Scott for being the best lawn mowing, weed wacking, and leaf blowing man I've ever had the pleasure of knowing.
Thank you Mr. Scott for running over our (Virgie and me) Magnolia Jane tree that we planted for our wedding and hitting or knocking various other items in our yards. Everything always grew back and we shared great memories with you because of you being you Mr. Scott.
Thank you Mr. Scott for the endless bags of shelled, and sometimes not, pecans over the years.
Thank you Mr. Scott for giving me the grand tour of your house next to Nathan and keeping me updated on your updates.
Thank you Mr. Scott for always calling to check on me and ask about my dirt bike racing and to ask about Virgie or my dogs. We share that deep love for our dogs. You shared my sorrow with me after their passing.
Thank you Mr. Scott for always being you, Jamie Scott.
Thank you Mr. Scott for being a dependable and good friend. You endeared yourself to us Mr. Scott and I am quite tearful as I write you. Thank you for that as well Mr. Scott-
