“ To: The McElroy Family,
I send my heartfelt condolences to all of you.
Joe & Family have been dear friends to me & my late husband (Billy) for many years.
I have admired the Christian values of the McElroy Family down through the years.
May God give each of you comfort during this stressful time, & the knowledge & understanding that Jayson is just asleep in Christ, & you will see him again some Glorious Day when Our Saviour calls His Faithful Home.
In Christian Love,
Elaine Callaway Brooks & Family

“ Family: My condolences to each of you in the passing of Bro Jayson. Has been a friend of mine for several years. He and his brother Harvey has done several jobs for me on my farm with his dump truck, Cat Loader. He and Harvey always treated me and my family with courtesy, fairness and honesty. I have missed them working the last few years due to their health issues. I pray God's blessings for his love and comfort to all of his family and friends of Cherokee Co..RIP Jayson , you have fought the good fight . Resp, Wendell O. Rakestraw, Woodsbend Community.
