“ I am really sorry to hear about your loss. Death is a hard thing to see happen and my sympathy is with all family and friends who loved Ms. King. I know how hard it is to experience the death of a loved one, and what has helped me in the past is knowing the prophecy found at Revelation 21:4. There, the scriptures are quoted as promising that there will come a day that "death will be no more." Also "neither will mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be anymore." This scripture is talking about a day in the future when God will remove the symptoms of death, and ultimately death itself so that humans can live peacefully and healthfully in a new earth. Once again, I am sincerely sorry for your loss and i hope that the Scriptures may help encourage you. -Sarah

“ I'm so sorry to hear of you're lost. I want to send you my sympathy's . I know it can be hard to find comfort at a time like this. That's why I wanted to share something that I found to be comforting. It's the hope held out to us in the Bible at Psalms 34:18. I hope it brings you the same comfort it brings me. Please take care.
