“ Jeanette was what I consider as a lifetime friend. We worked together at the Naval Air Station Atlanta for years in Accounting. She was a very, very dedicated worker. Everyone thought a lot of Jeanette. She and all of the other workers in our office shared so many lifetime events and so many days together. It was like we were one big happy family. Mike and Jeanette invited me to their home when they moved to Temple. They proudly showed me their beautiful home and the yard and flowers. On the way back to my home, they treated me to dinner at this Oriental restaurant. This was a beautiful day spent with two people who will have a special place in my heart forever.
