“ *Jill,
You will always have that place in my heart that you and only you have always kept. We have laughed and had some of the very best times that will never be forgotten and when I make it over to our eternal life with you, we are going to live it up and make Heaven laugh! I'm sure there will be no shortage of Dalmatians, Barbies, and ketchup, lol! I love you and I always have but you knew that. You always encouraged me and said the sweetest things. Watch for me friend and I'm going to watch for you too!! With all my heart I love you and your sweet family who throughout life have been family to me also. I pray for everyone who has to say goodbye to such a unique soul. I know we WILL see one another again. Love you Jill!!*

“ I have so many memories of Jill I don't know where to even begin. I love her and Lindsey like my own family. Jill was so beautiful, funny, smart, and one the most fun people to be around. I know her family is devastated, and I wish I could say or do something to ease their pain. But I'm at such a loss for words and shocked I don't know where to begin. I wish I had seen her more over the past few years. But I know God has a special place for her in heaven. God bless the Roberts family. I love you all. Until we meet again, Jill.
