“ My father has been a resident at Tut Fann for two months, and it was in my daily visits with him that I met dear Mr. Patty. In order to reach my father's wing, I walked past the nurses' station of Mr. Patty's wing; he sometimes would sit outside the station and would speak as I walked by. He had such a sweet spirit and would always say to be careful when I left. Once, when I offered my hand, he held it and prayed. I feel extremely blessed to have made his acquaintance. I know that he is in a much better place, but I will miss seeing him. What a special treasure your family had in him! My sincere condolences to the Patty family.

“ I’m so sorry to hear of your loss. May I offer you my condolences. I have found much comfort in the words of John 11:23-25; Jesus said to Martha: “Your brother will rise.” Martha said to him: “I know he will rise in the resurrection on the last day.” Jesus said to her: “I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life.” Death may claim our loved ones momentarily, but we will receive them back in the end. Until that anticipated time arrives, we have many cherished memories to warm our heart.
