“ Be with God Uncle Joe, enjoy your happiness with Aunt Betty. Thank you for being an influence in my life and all the times we had dinner with your fine spaghetti. Thanks for teaching me some gardening and letting me help with the garden as a child.

He enjoyed every minute Karen. You now how Dad was when he got someone interested in gardening.

I still tell the true story in my construction classes of how Joe Tubolino built homes in Kenneth City and employed a man named "Zeek". When the Tubolino's moved their operations up to Elfers, Joe drove from Elfers to Kenneth City to pick up Zeek, and returned him every night. You see Zeek did not have a drivers license. Joe Tubolino was that kind of a man. That is what we are missing in our workforce and world today - men like Joe Tubolino.

I am sorry to hear of his passing. He was always very kind to me. So my love and respect goes out to the entire Tubolino family - you all are the best of people. Peace be with you MaryAnn, Among other family, your dad is with Sam and Josephine, better company cannot be had....

“ Dearest family with memories from my teenage years and sleep overs with my best teen age years friend Mary Ann Tublino. This man, dad, to Mary Ann, Rose Marie, and Joey would come in from work very late exhausted, hot and tired from work in hot Florida sun. In the kitchen cooking dinner was a lady with the biggest smile and hug waiting for this man. He smiled back and gave "mom" a big kiss. Dinner followed, dishes and of course us girls giggled late in the night until we were told "quiet" I have nothing but fond memories to share, this family always has and always will hold a special place in my heart. RIP Mr Tublino
