*No greater loss, than the loss of a child.
The pain in the living lingers.
It's the pain of loving.
Both pains last forever
You are now at peace with yourself and the world you left, on your terms, in your time.
Now safe with God.*

“ My brothers life was short but from I know, filled with immense love of others. It is our duty to keep that flame burning within each of us.
