“ I just learned of Karen's death. My sincere condolences to Mrs. Blanche, Chuck, Eric, and the rest of the family... and to Karen's many friends. Karen and I dated for a good while in the mid 70's and I loved her and her family very much. I enjoyed attending Fairhope Baptist church with Karen and her family, going to Lake Weiss and to movies with her. Karen, even though I haven't seen her since my days in the Warrant Officer Flight Training Days at Fort Rucker, always remained a strong influence on my life. Because of her, I finished my BS and seminary degrees and served as pastor of churches in Ohio, Kentucky, California, Missouri, and Mississippi. Karen influenced the decisions I made to finding a mate for life, as I always used her as a sort of standard. I finally found my mate in Robin E. Thompson Malone and have been married to her since 1986. We have two grown children, Kristen (a captain in the Army) and Jason (just graduated from college and is working on his masters in English Education). Even though we haven't seen each other in such a long time, I have often thought of Karen and her parents, who were all so wonderful to me... and always welcomed me so warmly into their home. I shall always remember Karen as a wonderful, warm-hearted Christian lady and look forward to the time we greet one another again in glory.

“ Karen was such a sweet, compassionate and kind childhood friend. When my grandmother was in the nursing home in Centre she would go and visit her. My sincere condolences to her family and friends.

“Karen was, and now is, truly an angel. She was kind and cared for every person, and every creature. She was always so welcoming when I visited, and a perfect hostess. In all the years I have known her, she has always been the same. Just a quiet and calming demeanor, and so pretty. She had Aunt Blanche's genes in that she always looked the same. Never aged. Both Karen and Aunt Blanche are true Southern ladies, and I admire both of them. Karen, you will be missed by me, and all those who knew you. Rest in peace, my cousin.

So sad for the family's loss. Know she had suffered too much from the cancer so God healed her completely. Praying for Blanche and the family.

“Karen was a beautiful person inside and out. She loved her family and often shared funny stories with me about her nieces when they were growing up and then her great nieces and nephews. She so enjoyed Mason, whom she got to spend the most time with.

Karen loved animals. When my Mary Elisabeth was four years old, a stray cat came up at the lake. I was staying over there with Aunt Winnie and I called Karen to come take the cat home with her. Instead, she came over, bathed the cat with flea shampoo (it was covered in fleas!) and said the cat should go home with us. Kitty did go home with us and made us very happy for at least 14 years as an outdoor kitty.

Karen was a very spiritual person and would often spend all of Sunday in her room, praying and studying the Bible. She was an inspiration to me. She will be missed.

She was a prayer warrior for our family!

Karen, you always put others before your self. I love you.
