“ Selfless Service...an Army value and Larry's way of life. The common characteristic mentioned by all that knew Larry was his selfless approach to taking care of Soldiers and friends. Great friend and great mentor to me.

“ I was blessed to experience 1SG Hanson's servant leadership very early in my military career, shaping my expectations for what a senior leader should be. He will be sorely missed, though his impact will remain with the Alabama National Guard indefinitely through each and every Soldier he came in contact with. May God bless you Elaine, and we look forward to seeing you again.

“ Elaine, I can barely form the words to express what I feel about the loss of Top and my mind is racing. As many people know, Larry was a HUGE influence on my life for over 14 years in the ALARNG and then beyond so I am sibly dumbstruck and numb as I type these words. Top allowed me to be myself while staying within the constraints of the Army and I learned so much from him as a both as a soldier and in civilian life. Top was a burly 'ol "Man's Man" full of life, incredible work ethic, and a good story on his lips at any given time. I have so many anecdotes that I could (and some I couldn't) have shared at the funeral but I have been living in Kwajalein for a little over 5 years and only heard today about losing him a few minutes ago by phone. Larry is still listed as the executor of my will all these years later because of my trust in him to do right by my family so please know that I feel deeply for your loss of a good man. I hope my words can in some way let you know how blessed both are to have shared time with him.
