“ I've been through a lot of death; death from desaises, death from accidents, death from violence, and all the consequences of them. And I'm only 23. I never refuse that it may happen to my family too .No, it already happened. I know someday it'll come and I've tried to be prepared. But somehow I just cannot make it.I know those things can happen to me too. I've passed through a lot of medical processes. I feel vulnerable but it's ok. Human is vulnerable. We are not special. It just happens. I was sorrow for a long time but then, someone told me we had to live with the present or we'll never find peace. That's true. That's what people do when it's time for tragic. Live with the present and what we've got now, not what we used to have or will have. Do not be imaginative at this time. We have to know our emotion, know how we feel and just deal with it. That's what I've tried to do for all these years and it keeps me alive.Well, I may talk some crap. Sorry. I never tell my thought to anyone because my imagination tells me that no one wants to hear. But I just want to say it.

“ Aunt Lorine, My life was better by knowing you - I will always cherish our Alabama summers together. I remember always looking forward to your biscuits and gravy and picking out a cabbage patch doll of my choice. I can only imagine the family reunion you are having now - please tell my daddy and everyone hello. We love you!

“ I am really sad to see you leave us. With you being moms twin it was like we still had a piece of her in you. I love you and will miss you greatly.
