“Mrs. Lucille” Williamson was always loved, because she was so kind, compassionate and loving. The students at CCHS adored her. I remember her from my childhood on, in church, school and community. To the family, cherish all the memories. My prayers are for you and thankfulness that she is now celebrating with her Savior, Jesus Christ. Love to all the family.

“ Ms. Lucille's Family,
We are so saddened to hear of Ms. Lucille's passing. She has been a Dear and sweet Friend to us both. She was indeed one of the first friends to Welcome me to Cherokee County when I moved here from Michigan many years ago. We loved and enjoyed the Literally Club together. She is a Precious friend, & we will miss her. May God Bless each of you is our prayer.
