“ I’m not sure how I’m going to do life without you. I miss texting you after 9 in the morning so that you were awake and alert and not grumpy. Mornings were not your favorite. I miss us binge watching Hallmark on the weekends. I can still see you running after the golf cart when they were taking me to the ship with my triple ankle fracture. You were loaded down with shopping bags and running faster than the golf cart. I remember the great times we had camping with little Jack and Mary . I remember our pregnancy cravings of first Mi Casita and then to Morrison’s for egg custard. I remember how you would drop everything to be a friend to not only me but those who were in need. You are my best friend and I long to see you again one day. No one can take your place. I will check in on Mary. You have a wonderful daughter who made you so proud and she always will. She’s got so much of you in her. It doesn’t feel real or fair, but to be with our Heavenly Father is the greatest gift.

Prayers and hugs for all of the Glenn Family. Sorry I didn't make the visitation but trying to stay safe. Your shining light is gone. Marge was also smiling. What a loss you have suffered. My greatest memory was the day Elvis passed. Dad and Mr Charles went fishing and Marge stayed with me. We were listening to the radio and heard the news. I will never forget her. Y'all will continue to be in my prayers. Love you all.

“ I only met her when she got sick and was admitted to the hospital. Mary would pull up a chair and sit outside her mom's ICU room everyday...all day. Texting and calling her and making sure she had everything she needed. She never left her side. She bathed her, motivated her to get stronger and Margaret would get so mad lol!!! She even threw the hand squeeze at Mary and we all laughed!! But she got stronger and better everyday!! We all loved Margaret and Mary so much at CMC!!! 💕💕💕
