“ So sorry for your loss. I am also saddened. My wife and I remember him so well. He worked for me and with me as a Corporal and Sergeant while stationed at MCAS El Toro in 1979-1980. We went snow skiing at Mammoth Mountain in the winter and water skiing in the summer. Oh some great memories.

“ Bridget, my deepest sympathy for you and all of Michael's family. Even though I haven't known you very long, I am enamored by the strength of both of you. Try and remember all of the wonderful times y'all shared and the sweet memories that cannot be removed from your thoughts and heart. Please let me know if there is anything I can do for you in this time of great sadness.
