Goodbyes are not forever, they are not the end, it simply means I'll miss you until we meet again. The hardest part of losing someone isn't saying goodbye, but rather learning to live without them, always trying to fill the void, the emptiness that's left inside your heart when they go. Those we love never really go away, they walk beside us everyday, unseen and unheard , but always near. Still loved, still missed and very dear. I thought of you today with love. But that is nothing new. I thought of you yesterday and the days before that too. I think of you in silence and often speak your name. All I have are memories and your picture in a frame. Your memory is my keepsake in which I will never part. God has you in his keeping and I will always have you in my heart. When someone you love becomes a memory, that memory becomes a treasure. God saw you were tired and a cure was not to be. So He put his arms around you and whispered "come to me" I know you are in Heaven MawMaw I hope you realize how much you are loved by those you left behind.

“ I loved MawMaw more than words could describe. You couldn't help but love and aggravate her. She would definitely give it back to you. I'm crying as I write this. This still doesn't feel real. MawMaw definitely left footprints on my heart as well as my co-workers. She was such a joy to be around. She was either making us laugh or we were making her laugh. I guess we forget that life is just temporary. I know MawMaw is in a better place, no more suffering. Walking the streets of gold. Rest In Peace MawMaw. I love you more than you will ever know. Remember this isn't goodbye.....it's see you later.
