

Nettie Belle Tumlin

July 23, 1913 - November 15, 2010

NETTIE BELLE TUMLIN Funeral service for Nettie Belle Tumlin, 97, Centre who died Monday, November 15, 2010 will be at 2:00 p.m. Wednesday at Perry Funeral Home in Centre. Roy Thomas will officiate with burial in Union Number 3 Cemetery in Ball Play. Pallbearers will be nephews. Mrs. Tumlin was preceded in death by her husband of 65 years, Wallace L. Tumlin, sister, Velma Box, and many of her loved ones. She was a member of Davis Chapel Methodist Church where she taught Sunday School for many years. She was instrumental in setting up perpetual care at Taylor's Chapel Cemetery where so many of her loved ones are buried. Mrs. Tumlin, was born in 1913 on the farm where she lived until her death. She was an avid gardener raising fresh vegetables that were sold throughout the area. Many people will remember her for the delicious butter and milk she also sold. She was a member of the Hemerocallis Society. She propagated and sold beautiful and unusual Daylilies all across the United States. Mrs. Tumlin is survived by one sister-in-law, Dorothy T. Coley, Centre, a host of nieces and nephews, and special caregivers Patricia Dollar and Sandra O'Conner. The family would like to express thanks to Dr. Byron Nelson, the staff at Cherokee County Medical Center, and the Cherokee County Home Health Care personnel for their special care and compassionate service. Visitation will be from noon until 2 Wednesday at Perry Funeral Home in Centre. The Family will accept flowers or memorials may be made to The American Heart Association.

PDF Printable Version