“ I was Nicholas's brother. I sit here a little over 2 weeks after and for the first time I am crying I never got the chance to know him. I dont know why, guess my side of the family was not good enough to be apart of his life. I felt so much anger this past few week cause I was not crying , I did not feel that gut wrenching pain of losing a brother cause I never got to know him. We had so much in common I found out the 1 time i got the privilage to meet him. And now that bond that brothers are suppost to have can never happen. I did not even find out until 2 days after he had passed. I doubt Ill even find out when the memorial will be held if it has not already. I find out I got a niece would love to be apart of her life but I dont know if that will happen. So Guess this is the only way Ill ever get to say good bye to my brother. Good Bye Nicholas , I wish we could have spent more time together. Im sorry

“ When You feel Lonely When a person you love passes away Look to the night sky on a clear day. The star that to you, appears to be bright, Will be your loved one, Looking upon you during the night. The lights of heaven are what shows through As your loved one watches all that you do. When you feel lonely for the one that you love, Look to the Heavens in the night sky above.
