“ I met Max 29 years ago when I was 8 years old when my dad was appointed as his pastor. He and his family welcomed us warmly into the church family, and a lot of my childhood was spent fishing at their cabin on the lake. Moving away from most of my family at a young age wasn't as hard with people like him that always treated me like family, even into my 30's. As an adult now I take my children to the lake and always enjoy seeing Max come through. He's always had the most radiant smile, and always asks if we're having any luck and giving us the latest updates and tips just like he did when I was young. I have never seen him upset, rushing to get somewhere else, or heard him say a single negative thing, that just wasn't his nature. My family and I have been blessed to know him, and he will be greatly missed.
